Cranberry Watermelon Mint Cooler

- 90 milliliters cranberry juice
- 30 milliliters watermelon syrup
- 20 milliliters lemon juice, freshly squeezed
- 8 fresh mint leaves
- 60 milliliters sparkling water
- 1 cups ice

Steps:

1. Muddle the mint: Place 8 fresh mint leaves in the bottom of a glass and gently muddle to release the oils. Don't over-muddle or it turns bitter.
2. Build the drink: Fill the glass with 1 cups ice, then pour in 90 milliliters cranberry juice, 30 milliliters watermelon syrup, and 20 milliliters lemon juice, freshly squeezed. Stir well to combine.
3. Top & garnish: Top with 60 milliliters sparkling water for a light fizz. Garnish with a sprig of mint and a thin lemon wheel.

Citrus Mango Sunrise

- 90 milliliters orange juice, freshly squeezed
- 20 milliliters lemon juice, freshly squeezed
- 30 milliliters mango syrup
- 1 cups ice

Steps:

1. Build the base: Fill a glass with 1 cups ice. Pour in 90 milliliters orange juice, freshly squeezed and 20 milliliters lemon juice, freshly squeezed and give it a quick stir.
2. Layer the mango: Gently pour 30 milliliters mango syrup over the back of a spoon so it settles at the bottom, creating a beautiful sunrise gradient.
3. Garnish & serve: Garnish with an orange slice or wedge and serve immediately without stirring, so guests can admire the layers first.

Shirley Temple

- 120 milliliters ginger beer
- 60 milliliters orange juice, freshly squeezed
